EMERGENCY HOSPITAL GETS NEW PATIENTS

That the epidemic of Spanish influenza is well on the wane was evident from the fact that for the forty-eight hours ending at midnight there were only two deaths, and both of these in surrounding towns, which have so far escaped. One was in Greenland and the other in North Hampton.

That the danger is not yet over was also evident from the fact that the Emergency hospital has thirty patients, two of which were brought in Saturday and five admitted on Sunday, and among them are some very critically ill.

Some of these were from Kittery, but the greater number from this city, where there are now cases being reported every day, but the number is diminishing. Kittery is still badly infected and there are now more severe cases there than at any time.

The Red Cross diet kitchen is still in great demand. On Saturday there were fifty-four families served with five new cases, and on Sunday forty-five families with three new cases.

There is practically another week's work before the kitchen and the management would like a little additional help during the day and in the evening.

There is still a great amount of work to get sick food for 45 families, which means well over 200 people, and it represents a lot of work. A few people who are not able to cook who would be willing to do some scrubbing, would be lending valuable assistance.

MENTAL ATTITUDE OF HUNS MUST CHANGE

New York, Oct. 20.—Unless peace can be restored "upon terms that will change the mental attitude of the German people toward its own master, and toward the rest of the world" the war will have been fought in vain. Henry Morgenthau, ex-ambassador to Turkey, said recently at the Liberty Loan rally at Cooper Union.

"I regard this as the fundamental point in the whole international situation," he added. "At present the German people possess a philosophy of life that takes its roots in hell. Unless they discard this and bring their thinking into line with that of enlightened Nations we will have obtained not an end to this war, but merely a truce."

Mr. Morgenthau said that although he did not believe the Allies should ravage German cities as Germany has ravaged those of France and Belgium, the Allied armies ought to destroy the German military machine "as a physical fact."

In all, he told the committee, 2,399,000 newly registered men between 18 and 45 would be called before July 1, and of that number more than 2,000,000 would be physically fit for fighting men. The calls for general service will be divided as follows:

October, 345,000; November, 204,000; December, 197,500; January, 147,500; February, 244,000; March, April, May and June, 344,600 each month. These men will supply the Army, Navy and Marine Corps.

In addition 20,000 men for limited service will be called each month. Gen. Crowder said the work of classifying new registrants should be completed by Jan. 1.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Draft calls for men who have passed their 37th birthday are expected to begin about March 1. Plans for bringing the older class of new registrants into camp have not been completed, but the approximate date of the first call was disclosed today by publication of testimony by Provost Marshal General Crowder before the House Military Committee.

ALLIES WIN ON ALL FRONTS

(By Associated Press)

Victory crowns the Allies' armies on every front and northern Belgium has been cleared of the enemy by the forces of the British, Belgians and French.

British and Belgian troops have taken Zeebrugge and Hoyst; have crossed the Bruges canal and their left has reached the Holland border. The German line has been cut off from retreat to the south by the advance on Eecloo, are reported to have withdrawn into Holland where they have been interned.

Then, it is predicted by the British headquarters, will fall at an early date and the French and British, by a swift stroke, have put their forces beyond Tournai. Thielde is in the hands of the French despite the desperate resistance offered by the Germans, as well as the higher ground thereabouts.

British troops have crowded the Sella river and have recaptured Solennes and by hand fighting St. Phylor to the east. Here the British have captured more than 2000 prisoners. Since the big offensive started in Flanders the Allies have made an advance of 30 miles over a 25-mile front, clearing all of western Flanders as well as the entire Belgian coast.

Fighting desperately to hold possession of Le Cateau, the Germans on a front of four miles have massed half a million men. This line is of vital importance to the Germans and of equal importance to the Allies for their advance in this section.

The British Third army is making its way forward to the south of Valenciennes and success has so far followed. The turning of the tide here will be of great danger to the German who are in the region to the north and south of this point.

The Americans, who are brigaded with the British, have captured Wassigny and have advanced to the Somme-Oise canal. They occupied Rejet east of the St. Souplet at the point of the bayonet, although waves upon waves of machine guns faced the Americans, who inflicted great casualties upon the Germans.

West of the Meuse the Americans have contained themselves with consolidating the positions captured from the Germans.

On the front in Russia a serious defeat with the loss of over 1000 men killed has been inflicted upon the Bolsheviks by the Czech-Slovak, who captured armored trains and machine guns.

comforts and solaces, between moral and recreational or which we know they must in many trying and depressing circumstances stand sadly in need.

"The Y. M. C. A. and the Knights of Columbus at the very outset caught the vision of this new service. Money was needed to carry out their programs and the people responded nobly and generously to their appeals. Five other organizations have been added to the number and each in its own way is rendering its particular and peculiar service to the troops so that not one of them may suffer from the lack of those special practices that are a part of his life and thought.

"Now, gentlemen, to my mind one of the great outstanding features of this war is the unity and harmony that have been developed among our great organizations when it is a matter of working for the common interests of the country. It is not a yielding of principles and belief, those must always remain inviolate, and secure, but it is a matter of uniting all our material forces for the accomplishment of those common benefits for the good of our country and particularly when our country calls and requires our aid.

"It remained for the President of the United States to make the wonderful decision that has made this possible. May God bless the President who made this decision. It is going to be one that will work infinite good to all of the people and to the country.

"May God bless you, then, gentlemen, in taking up this noble work and may God crown it with abundant success."

UNOFFICIAL TEXT OF GERMANY'S ANSWER TO NOTE

(By Associated Press)

London, Oct. 20.—According to unofficial reports reaching Amsterdam, the German reply to President Wilson was delivered to the Swiss minister at Bern on Saturday afternoon, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch.

In the note Germany consents to the evacuation of Belgium, but considers that such a withdrawal will take several months. It protests against the President's charges of cruelty in its occupied territory and that Germany denies responsibility for the women

And children who have been drowned from torpedoed passenger ships, but to advance peace Germany is prepared provisionally to stop the submarine warfare.

Finally the note disputes the right of outside nations to interfere in Germany's internal affairs or government and Germany should be allowed to determine her own affairs.

A Madrid dispatch states that the German admiralty has notified Spain that the admiralty has recalled all of her submarines to their base.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES ASK FOR NEW LAWS

Washington, Oct. 19.—A systematic drive for legislation to improve the Government service and the working conditions of Government employees is announced by the National Federation of Federal Employees, following a meeting of its legislative committee at national headquarters in the A. F. of L. building in Washington recently.

First on the list of new measures to be asked for will be a law abolishing arbitrary salaries and establishing an adjustment board through which to obtain, as for workers in private employ, an equitable relation between salaries and cost of living, and a reclassification of the entire civil service. In line with a resolution adopted at the recent annual convention of the Federation, Congress will be asked to stipulate that the employees shall have representation upon the proposed adjustment board equal to that of the administrative officials.

The Johnson-Nolan bill, providing $3 per day, or 37 1/2 cents per hour as the minimum wage for Government employees, including Washington school teachers, has already passed the House of Representatives, and early action in the Senate is sought by the Federation. The McKellar-Keating retirement bill establishing an old-age insurance system for federal workers, is expected to come to vote in the Senate within a few days, with excellent chance of passage. These two measures, which in some form have been before Congress for years, are regarded by Government employees as vital remedies for existing defects in the civil service, as well as in the Government's attitude toward its workers.

Notwithstanding the increase in living costs, thousands of Government employees are still receiving wages as low as $55 and $60 per month, while the lack of a retirement plan has forced upon the Government a virtual pension list of 3000 aged employees who have passed the period of their usefulness.

In order to focus public attention upon the conditions and needs of the federal civil service, the legislative committee of the employees organization according to the national president and chairman, Luther C. Steward, proposes to set up a coordinated system of legislative committees throughout the country. Each of the 105 local unions in the various states will be called upon to establish a committee auxiliary to the national legislative committee, and to put organized effort behind the legislative program. The national committee will meet every week at the Washington headquarters, and will maintain a close and quick intelligence service with the field.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked, from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood; then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad-Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithin and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad-Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

THE STATUS OF Y. M. C. A. CANTEEN

Atlanta, Georgia, Oct. 20.—The status of the Y. M. C. A. Canteen overseas was made plain today in a telegram from the War Department just received at Y. M. C. A. Headquarters. Considerable confusion that has existed in the minds of many people is cleared by the wire, which authoritatively states that a government investigation has established the fact that in maintaining canteens for the soldiers at the request of General Pershing, the Y. M. C. A. not only made no profit, but has lost thousands of dollars. The telegram follows:

"Matter of prices asked by Young Men's Christian Association for its articles sold in canteen overseas already investigated by War Department and condition being remedied. Young Men's Christian Association originally asked by General Pershing to run canteen for army on cost basis. To do this had to reckon in price fixing such overhead charges as transportation charges and marine insurance, so that prices were much higher than in this country. Young Men's Christian Association made no profit, but lost thousands of dollars. Arrangements now made will enable them to obtain supplies from sources that will reduce overhead charges and keep prices down.

E. P. KEEFER,
Third Assistant Secretary of War."

THE CATHOLIC EFFORT AND THE WAR

Boston, Oct. 20.—His Eminence Cardinal O'Connell spoke in part as follows:

"We have the great privilege to represent a body of men, the representatives of the National Catholic War Council from New York and to the representatives from all the dioceses of New England to complete today a uniform plan of Catholic cooperation in the United War Work Campaign, which the President of the United States has very wisely recommended to the seven large organizations engaged in caring for the spiritual, educational and recreational welfare of all our forces both on land and on sea."

After praising the clear vision and lofty adherence to principle of President Wilson, and extolling the spirit of the American people, Cardinal O'Connell continued:

"We now come to the methods that we have adopted in the conduct of this war and which is the reason of our meeting here today. For the first time in the history of the world has any nation ever thought of the soldier except as a fighting machine. A gun was put in his hand and he was sent out to fight. There was military discipline and he was under strict orders. But it remained for America in this war to originate a new conception of the soldier and to look upon him not merely as a fighting machine, but also as a human being, whose soul and mind and opportunity for innocent recreation should also be as zealously cared for and protected.

"America gives to the world today the beautiful spectacle and the new lesson of a nation sending her sons forth to fight and following them with all the tender solicitude and care of a loving mother. I am proud that it is our own America that has originated this new conception of military life which will go far not only in building up and maintaining the morale and efficiency of our forces, but which most of all will bring to our boys whom we love with all the warmth of which our hearts are capable, those

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

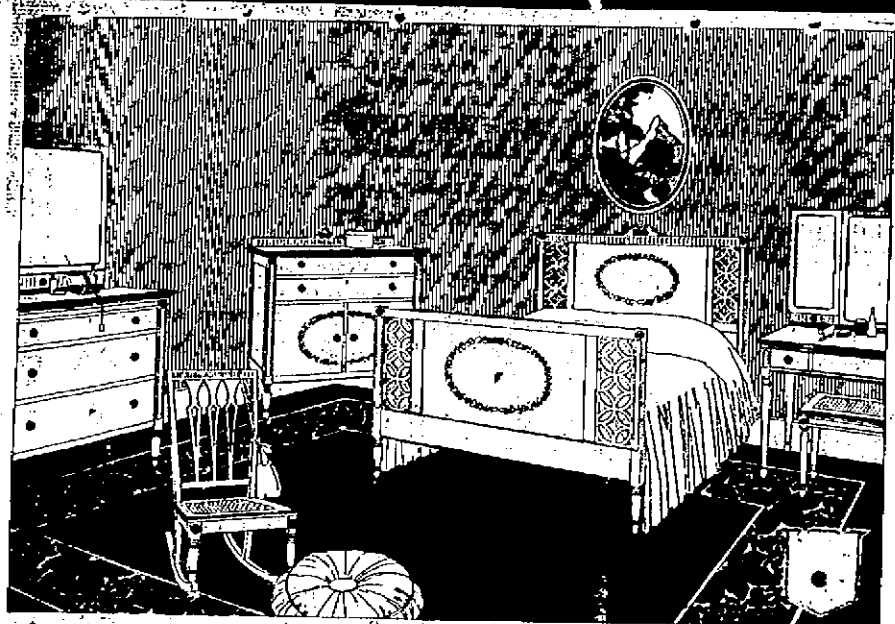

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and brittle, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers used a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep their locks dark and beautiful and thousands of women and men value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Portsmouth, N. H., Monday, October 21, 1918.

One Hundred Per Cent American.

Politics, as politics, is, to use a common expression, "in bad" this fall. The campaign was first sidetracked by the Liberty Loan, all parties and men realizing that raising funds for carrying on the war was of the first importance, and campaign activities were willingly deferred in order to give the loan drive a clear field. Then came the sweep of influenza, putting every community under the necessity of fighting vigorously for the protection of the public health, and one of the chief weapons in this fight was the placing of a ban on all public gatherings to the largest practicable extent. This ban is still in force in most parts of New England and many other parts of the country, and as election day is almost here campaigns, wherever they may be made, will necessarily be very short. Some state conventions have been postponed, and now the Republican State Committee of Massachusetts announces that it has abandoned the idea of making a campaign. This action has been taken in deference to the health authorities. The chairman of the committee says: "We fully realize the importance of mass meetings, but the preservation of the public health must be considered first."

Under the circumstances this is a proper position to take and there is no reason to believe that any party or candidate will suffer in consequence. There is no room for partisan politics this year. The present issue is one that appeals to all parties and all patriots alike, and is far more important than the success of any party or any candidate.

But while campaign activities will be greatly curtailed or entirely lacking, there is one thing that the voters should not and must not forget. This is that it makes little difference whether a candidate is a member of one party or another so long as it is known that he is a thorough patriot prepared to stand squarely behind the government in the prosecution of the gigantic task in which it is engaged. That is the test to be applied to candidates this year, and there is no reason to doubt that the voters will apply it. The head of the Massachusetts State Grange said truly a few days ago that the thing to do in this election is to be sure that no candidate receives a vote who is not known to be "100 per cent American."

That is the substance of the situation in a nutshell. We can well afford to curtail campaigning or dispense with it altogether, but we cannot afford to take chances with candidates, if any such there be, who are not known to be sound on the only issue worth considering—the greatest issue that the country and the world ever faced.

There are ways by which the voters can inform themselves on the character and quality of candidates in the absence of campaign hurrah, and they may be trusted to do this. And they will be grievously remiss if after the ballots are counted it shall be found that any man has been elected who is not "100 per cent American."

Right is Premier Foster of Ottawa when in commenting on President Wilson's answer to the note of the German Chancellor he says: "Hereafter the great contest goes straight forward until the Kaiser and his clique disappear as a factor in German nationality and their wicked and menacing influence is eliminated."

The members of the Pattern Makers' Union have offered to help the farmers husk their corn. If the offer is accepted, as it doubtless will be, they will not only show their dexterity in stripping husks, but their readiness to live up to tradition when red ears are exposed.

The Dartmouth football team has arranged for a few inter-collegiate games, which may possibly be the proper thing, but under the circumstances it may be said that football contests are not one of the most pressing needs of the country at the present time.

The Germans do hit it right once in a while. The North German Gazette of Berlin says: "The bringing about of an armistice and the inauguration of peace negotiations are not yet immediately attainable." Just so, exactly. "Not yet immediately."

The naval prisoners on Seavey's Island are prisoners, but they are also Americans. They proved this by their action in the Liberty Loan campaign, which resulted in the raising of $55,100. The news should be "wirelessed" to the Kaiser.

News from Bangor, Me., would indicate that the efficacy of prohibition depends largely on the men in charge of its enforcement. Apparently Sheriff Thayer of Penobscott county means business and is attending to it.

French scientists are said to have isolated the influenza germ. Now if they will find a way to keep it in isolation all will be well.

BOATSHOP AT THE NAVY YARD CLAIMS WORLD'S RECORD

Average $1,025 per Man on Four Issues of the Liberty Loan.

The boatshop at the Portsmouth Navy Yard is claiming a world's record in connection with the several Liberty Loans so far issued by the government to win the war. The record of the employees in the branch of the Industrial Department shows the following good work and contributions. On the first issue the shop with 120 men is credited with $26,650, the second issue with the same number of men the sum of $51,450 was subscribed, the third issue with 180 men it totaled $11,950 and the fourth with 258 men added $71,750. The average credits $1,025 per man for the four issues. The shop's work is very creditable when it is known that the small subscriber figured so strong. Everybody with the exception of two subscribed $500, or less. On the second loan one party took $3000 and another subscribed $1000 on the last issue. Charles H. Tucker was the captain of the team that handled the loans in the shop and the figures for the entire loans show what team has done and what the spirit of the boatbuilders is at Portsmouth Navy Yard.

Pinky Crosby, who is to meet Al Nelson at the Rockingham A. G. opening show, has many admirers among the local fans. The wonderful games he displayed against Johnny Wilson last spring is well remembered and he is sure to get an ovation from what is expected to be the biggest crowd that ever attended a boxing tournament in New Hampshire. Pinky's shipmates are anxious to see him make good here as this is the only place he ever lost a decision and the local club was asked to select some good opponent. Nelson and Crosby are good, fast, clean working boys with the gloves and should make an interesting go. Young Goodfellow and Johnny Walsh will open the show to be followed by Eddie Flynn of Peabody and Billy Burke of Lynn. Adv.

NO PEACE TILL NEXT YEAR HOOVER THINKS

The war will not end before another year at least, according to the views of National Food Administrator Hoover, expressed in a letter to the Massachusetts Food Administration yesterday.

In urging that every step possible be taken to add to the supply of food-stuffs for the boys over there, he says:

"There is no prospect of a proper ending of the war before the campaign of the summer of 1919. To attain victory we must place in France 3,500,000 fighting men, with the greatest mechanical equipment that has ever been given to any army. While we expect the position on the western front may be improved, from a military point of view, between now and then there can be no hope of a consummation of the kind that we must secure until another year has gone by."

PORTSMOUTH OVER TOP IN LIBERTY LOAN

At Least a Million Dollars Subscribed-- Navy Yard Leads Ship Yards in Per Capita Ratio

Portsmouth made a wonderful response to the Fourth or Fighting Liberty Loan and went over the top in grand style. Although the quota for this city was put up beyond at least two cities in the state with greater population, and in excess by $165,000 more than the population per capita, the city did not mean over the fact but buckled down to the game and by hard work not only reached its quota of $813,500, but went over the million dollar mark and at least will have over-subscribed by twenty-five per cent.

It has received a lot of hard work and a willingness on the part of the business men to give a part of their time to the work of selling bonds, to assist the already hard pressed banks. It was the same at the navy yard and at the two ship building plants a bunch of hustlers who had but one thought for the past two weeks and that was to sell bonds and they certainly did sell them. As a climax on Saturday the local committee was on to their job about the city and there was only one way to get by and that was the Liberty Hatton.

They buttonholed everybody and made a final cleanup of about $35,000 during the day on the street alone. The booth in front of the First National bank sold $15,000 worth of bonds during the day and included in this was one subscription of $4,000.

During the afternoon the Navy yard played at several places about the city and wherever there was a crowd, Mr. J. H. Neal delivered a few four minute talks with his usual forceful enthusiasm. The banks from the time they opened until late Saturday night did a rushing business, with extra clerks they were unable to handle the buyers, especially during the evening and there was a line at all of the banks.

The total figures for the entire city, which includes the Navy Yard, and the two ship yards, was not available on Sunday night, but it is thought that it will be close to two million dollars. Officially on Sunday night it was $1,606,000, and to this was added the business of part of Friday and all of Saturday. Out of this comes the credits to the other cities and towns which in some respects will be large. The Navy Yard and the Atlantic Corporation will run seventy-five percent to this city, the Atlantic even higher than that, possibly to ninety per cent, but the Shattuck will not give Portsmouth more than twenty-five per cent at the utmost.

Navy Yard Way Over.

As was expected, the Navy Yard lead all the plants, both in the total and the per capita, almost doubled both of the other plants. The official figures for the Navy Yard as reported to the Navy Department, was:

Total subscriptions, $827,350. This includes:

Southern	$28,750.00
Naval Prison	55,000.00
Officers	63,000.00
Enlisted men	73,500.00
Workmen	635,700.00

Officers and civilians' subscription was 100 per cent; the officers' per capita was $554.00; civilian per capita $117.66.

Atlantic Has Big Subscription.

The Atlantic Corporation for the workmen alone, that is, not counting the Corporation subscription, was $100,700 for 1900 men, or a per capita subscription of $55.50. This does not include the Atlantic Heights, which is the National Engineering Company, and their figures were not available last evening, but they were doing a great hustle there and they will make a fine showing.

Shattuck Yard Almost Doubled Quota. The Shattuck shipyard as the result of a fighting loan organization went way over what they had set for their top mark. Their figures that were available on Sunday was $171,000 and this includes a subscription of $25,000 made by the Company. Based on 2200 workmen, which they state is their force now, it gives a per capita of $77.72, or without the company's subscription of $56.36 per capita.

Chairman P. M. Sise on Sunday evening said that the banks were so rushed on Saturday night that they were unable to total their subscription, so that they would not tell the total, but expected to have the gross subscription this forenoon, but it will be some days before the actual figures with the credits deducted will be available.

From all over the country comes the story of the issue being over-subscribed, and from figures available on Sunday it is evident that the state will have gone over the top by at least twenty-five per cent.

NO MORE COMMISSIONS FROM WASH.

(U. Associated Press)

Washington, Oct. 20.—Applicants for commissions on staff and in departments, need no longer come or write to Washington in order to apply for a position, Gen. March, the chief of staff, says that commissions in all branches will hereafter be cared for by the Personnel Branch, and district headquarters will be established in 13 cities, where requests should be made. The New England district will be in room 330 at 51 State street, Boston.

WRIGLEY GIVES TIN-FOIL TO THE GOVERNMENT

To help meet the needs of the Government, Wrigley's will discontinue the use of tin-foil as a wrapping for "Juicy Fruit" chewing gum, in order to release this valuable material to Uncle Sam.

Hundreds of thousands of pounds per week of tin-foil will thus be made available to the Government, it is said. "Juicy Fruit" will hereafter appear in the hermetically sealed pink wrapper same as "Spearmint." "Doublemint" will also be wrapped in waxed pink paper, instead of green.

LITTLE CAST ASIDE

How Military Stores on Mexican Border Are Salvaged.

Nothing That It Is Possible to Repair, or in Any Way Make Useful, Is Ever Thrown Away as Worthless.

The most extensive dealer in junk on the Mexican border wears an olive drab uniform, two bars on his shoulders and a serious look, for business is always rushing with Capt. Fred Felix, Uncle Sam's junk man in the cavalry division here, writes the Fort Bliss (Tex.) correspondent of the New York Sun.

As head of the salvage and reclamation department of the general quartermaster depot here, Captain Felix and his force of enlisted men are repairing and salvaging supplies which have been discarded by the United States army in the border district. Three warehouses, a part of the fort machine shops, and the yard down town, are used for this work.

Tents which have been torn by the winds are repaired by men who have been sailors or who have experience in repairing canvas. Canvas cot covers which have been torn are cut up into small pieces and made into clothing bags. These cot covers were formerly discarded. A tailor shop has been established where worn and torn uniforms are repaired, buttons sewn on, the uniforms steam cleaned and pressed and returned to the owners.

Army shoes which have been worn by many marches over the desert sands near the fort are half-soled by machinery, ripped places stitched, new laces inserted and the shoes sent back for further wear. Not a scrap of leather is permitted to be wasted by the reclamation and salvage department. Shoes too badly worn to be repaired, and cavalry boots, are ripped to pieces and the leather used for repairing other boots and shoes. The scraps are then sent to market for use in the manufacture of composition belting.

Recently 15 meat grinders for preparing meat for cooking were condemned and sent to the reclamation department to be sold for junk. Instead, the parts were separated, reassembled and five good grinders obtained, while the remaining parts were stored for repairing other grinders. Broken parts were sold for junk.

Wagons, automobiles, tank wagons, camp kitchens and every other kind of field equipment is received by this department. Wagonmakers replace worn parts of transport and ammunition wagons with new ones. All automobile parts are classified and a crew of garage men repair the cars as they come to the shops. Even trucks for caterpillar trucks are kept for repairing those big trucks which haul supplies over the desert.

Broken spurs, ragged girdles and bags, eyelets from wornout puttees, harness, saddles, the ropes and even "bull whips" used by the army mule drivers are salvaged in Uncle Sam's big junk shop here, and the government is saved thousands of dollars by repairing army property which otherwise would have to be replaced with new.

Potash From Cement Dust. Extraction of potash from dust is claimed as a possibility. James D. Rhodes, a Pittsburgh manufacturer, claims to have made the discovery, and at his own expense has arranged to erect a large experimental plant adjoining the plant of a cement company at Castalia, O., for the purpose of experimenting for 120 days.

The Castalia plant is in the hands of a receiver and it was necessary to get permission of the United States district court before Mr. Rhodes could enter into any agreement with the receiver. This was granted.

Mr. Rhodes said he could extract large quantities of potash for fertilizer from the dust and waste of cement mills that will be of great benefit to the country in increasing the supply. It is understood that the United States government is watching the experiment with interest.

Dogs on the Battlefield.

Experiments made in the training of dogs as messengers with the armies in the field have, it is stated, given satisfactory results. The dogs which have proved most receptive under instruction are chiefly half-bred collies and retrievers. A rather poor breed of bob-tailed sheep dogs has also done well. All have been trained to perform their errands during heavy firing, both rifles and guns. They can be fired over as easily as the ordinary sporting dog, and what is quite another thing, they will face fire at close range. Many have shown amazing skill in getting over, under and through all sorts of obstacles, including wire.

Destinations—Berlin.

H. T. Bennett, a Seymour traveling man, was standing on a depot platform in a Kentucky town while a group of colored men were waiting to enter, and overheard the following conversation between one of the conscripts and a colored girl who was bidding him goodbye:

"Well, Sam, are you goin' with this bunch?" I suppose you are goin' to France right soon, ain't you?" the girl asked.

"Not exactly," replied the soldier candidate. "I suppose I'll go through France, but you see, I'm on my way to Berlin."—Indianapolis News.

AUTO TRAVEL NOT AS HEAVY AS EXPECTED

Sunday, the first day of the lifted ban on the gaudiest Sundays, did not see the great amount of travel that was expected. It was, of course, a great deal heavier than the three Sundays on which the ban was in force, but it was not as great as would ordinarily be seen on a pleasant day at this time of the year.

The Board of Registrars will be in session at City Hall on the following days: Tuesday, Oct. 15th, Friday, Oct. 18th, Tuesday, Oct. 22, Friday, Oct. 25th and Wednesday, Oct. 30th, from 9 a. m. to 12 a. m., 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., and 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. to prepare check list for the coming election Tuesday, Nov. 5th 1918, also on election morning from 8 a. m. to 12, to grant certificates to those legal voters whose names may have been omitted from check list.

TREASURES LOST TO HISTORY

Paradise of Spaniards, on Isla de Mujeres is Regretted by Archeologists.

Fortified by grim rocks from the wind-driven waves of the Yucatan channel lies the Isla de Mujeres—Isle of Women. The Spaniards on a voyage in search of gold in the sixteenth century were tossed up on this island, where they found no gold, but had an interesting time. When they started on an exploring tour of the island they came upon a stone temple. Lured by the fumes of incense, they entered and saw many idols representing goddesses, clothed in cotton garments. Omelting at the ceremonies were women dressed in bright cottons and decked out with feathers and ornaments of precious metals.

The Spaniards, excited by this scene of idol worship, rushed in, smashed the idols, triumphantly placed an image of the Virgin on the altar and held mass before the eyes of the astonished priestesses and native worshippers. Archeologists have never ceased to regret the fervor of the Spaniards, who thus unheeding destroyed unique treasures of Mayan civilization.

The Spaniards named the place Isla de Mujeres for future reference and sailed away. The frightened Mayans deserted their shrines. For years the Isla de Mujeres lay still and forsaken. Gradually it awakened. A fishing village grew up near the ancient altar and the Yucatan hunt the hew-billed turtle where once Indian maidens swung the censers and chanted their prayers.

ART OF WALKING REVIVED

That More People Take Beneficial Exercise Is an Indirect Result of Great War.

The human race was forgetting the art of walking. Vanity had had something to do with it—and the shoemakers, who catered to vanity. For the truth was, people were paying more attention to the style of the shoe than to the comfort of the foot. Then came the war.

Whatever else they are called upon to do, soldiers have to walk. In walking, one must have shoes that fit—shoes that do not cramp the foot, shoes with flat soles and low heels. So the armies of the world provided their soldiers with shoes in which they could walk—and the soldiers found the walking easy.

Seeing these millions of soldiers with good feet, properly shod and finding that they could walk for long distances without tiring, the rest of the world gradually came to adopt sensible shoes. In the fulness of time all of us may learn to walk, and when we do we shall find that we had for many years overlooked the most delightful process of locomotion that has as yet been invented.

Walking is the best exercise that has been devised, because it is the most natural. Man is a walking animal; the process of walking involves every nerve and muscle of the body and insures health. Men and women who walk do not suffer from any kind of disease. But the first principle of walking is a proper shoe for the foot—Southwest American.

Building the Pyramids.
In looking at pictures of the pyramids and the Sphinx everyone has wondered how these great monuments could be built in an age when there was no such thing as a steam derrick. Discussion upon the point has run through the centuries.

An English engineer has hit upon what appears to be the true explanation. His opinions are supported by the evidence of ancient inscriptions on tombs and temples. This engineer states that in building a pyramid the Egyptians constructed an inclined roadway to the level of which the work had reached.

As the pyramid grew taller the angle of the road constantly grew steeper and its length greater. Up this roadway passed all the material required in building the pyramid, hauled by slaves and pack animals.

Species of Whippoorwill.

The cry of the whippoorwill is its song and only the male utters it. The female is silent. When it is singing, just as likely as not, the whippoorwill is sitting on the ground, although it sings from the treetops at times. It doesn't sing after midnight. From dark until about 10 o'clock is its favorite time for singing—or yelling. In the South there is a kindred bird, somewhat larger than the Northern whippoorwill, which is sometimes called "chuck-will's-widow," because that is what some folks assert it says. And in England there is a bird very similar to the whippoorwill, known as the "goat-sucker," because it is supposed to obtain its food from the milk of goats.—Exchange.

Her Prophecy Came True.

A story is told to the effect that Simon Bolivar, when he was a child of seven, had for a playmate in Spain a boy of about his own age named Ferdinand, the future Spanish King. One day, while engaged in a game of butchery and shuttlescock, a stroke by young Bolivar knocked the cup from Ferdinand's hand. Whereupon an old nurse, who witnessed the occurrence, and who was deemed a soothsayer, declared that some day Bolivar would knock the crown from the king's head. Which feat he certainly did accomplish, so far as South America was concerned.

CARE FOR SOLDIERS' FEET

Army Authorities Particular That There Shall Be Little Trouble in That Respect.

"How is Uncle Sam able to raise sufficient funds to shoe his children?" we might ask just now, when the prices of shoes are soaring almost above the average purse.

This question was, however, answered at a recent meeting in Atlantic City of the American Leather Chemists' association, which was also attended by several members of the American Chemical society. Their discussion on this subject proved most conclusively that the boys in service are being provided with the finest quality leather in their army shoes, and that it is surpassed by none.

Another interesting fact developed in their discussion—that the army shoes are made with the flesh side of the hide outside. In this way grease may be readily applied to the leather from time to time in order to keep it waterproof.

It was most gratifying to learn that in every first-aid kit the soldier carries a tube of paste to apply to the feet in order to prevent trench sores, which were so common in the early days of the war. These sores are caused by the alkaline water in the trenches, but if the feet are promptly protected by an inert grease no such bad effects result.

Thus we see that Uncle Sam is dealing with the question of the army shoe from the soldiers' viewpoint of comfort and protection, as well as from his own standpoint of the wearing qualities. The government recognizes that the soldiers' feet

BOOZE RAID ON TRAIN AT DOVER ON SATURDAY

Passengers Throw Liquor Out Windows to Avoid Arrest; Several Escape.

There was plenty of excitement at Dover on Saturday night on the arrival of the 5:17 train at that station, in fact the excitement started long before the train reached there. The arrest of over 70 passengers on this train was made by officers from the department of justice and several railroad police, was for the violation of the Webb-Kenyon law in carrying liquor from one state to another and though the officers got a large number it is said that nearly as many more escaped because the officers did not have the necessary time to search them and their packages. These officers boarded the train at Haverhill and previously had been watching the passengers getting on with packages.

Just as soon as the train passed over the state line near Atkinson the raid started and continued until the train arrived at Dover.

As soon as it became known that the officers were searching for booze there was a great rush to dispose of it by several of the passengers.

One man tossed $27 worth out the window. Another let $17 go out into a field while others dropped it under the seats and in the toilet.

One man put up quite a battle with the officers and it took two or three of the searching party to handle him and get the barkequin away from him. A few of those who had a small amount and looked good to the officers are said to have got away with it, although their names were taken and they were told what would happen if they were caught again.

Those placed under arrest were all ordered into the baggage car and on the arrival at Dover were sent to the police headquarters. In automobiles where the United States Commissioner Burns P. Helgman was waiting to greet them. They were arraigned at once and held in $100 for their appearance at the December term of the United States court to be held at Concord. Cash bail was given in most instances. As a result of the roundup large quantities of whiskey and other liquors were seized.

It is understood that the officers had planned to make a roundup on other trains but could not get on the job owing to the big hunt and rushing business done on the 5:17 train.

MORE WORK AND LESS PLAY AT THE SHIPYARDS

Authorities Say That Sports Are Detriment to Work.

Athletics in the shipyards of the country will be abandoned, according to Charles Fies, vice president and general manager of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

"We are going to concentrate as much of our attention as we can on making ships after this," he declared. "The men have been diverted as much as I am told, by labor leaders, and the men themselves complain that they are led to waste too much time in getting ready for athletic events and too much time in recovering from them."

"I always have favored athletics in moderation but the kind of professionalism we have had serves no useful purpose. It has now become a question of who can pay the highest salaries to a few stars. I feel safe in saying that the same conditions will not exist next year."
